1") In G.O. No D 8796-99 dated the 23rd April 1942, it was directed that Mr. Siddalingappa, appointed as Revenue Officer, Bangalore City will draw his pay plus the allowances attached to the office in pursuance of the order, he is at present drawing viz pay Rs 120 in grades 100-10-150 plus Rs 25 Duty allce. plus Rs 25 Conveyance allowance. with effect from 23-4-1942

4) The MC Comr has raised a point as to whether Mr. Siddalingappa, being only a Md employee, could be allowed to draw the duty allowance of Rs 25 p.m., as only Municipal employees are allowed to draw the duty allce. This stand that, prior to 1937, when the Md employees were being posted as Revenue Officers, the duty allowance was not being drawn by the Md employees but only Govt servants

15) The entire question depends on how the words "the allowances attached to his office" in Rule 13 of the Subsidiary Rules under the Mysore Land Revenue Code are interpreted. My predecessor has drawn a conveyance allowance of Rs 75 plus a daily allowance of Rs 25 drawn from the Rev. Dept.

16) The question is whether he will, if allowed to draw a conveyance allowance of Rs 75 and daily allowance of Rs 25, be allowed to draw both allowances for the same days.

Dated 16th June, 1942

No. A5-318/41

Dear Mr. Narayanaswami Naidu,

Adverting to G.O. No. L. 8796-99/M1. 10-41-92 dated 23-4-1942, directing inter-alia that Mr. N. Siddalingappa might draw the allowances attached to the office of the Revenue Officer of this Municipality, I write to state that the duty allowance was not being drawn prior to July 1937 when the vacancies of the Revenue Officers were being filled up from among the employees of this Municipality. A duty allowance of Rs. 25/- per month was first sanctioned to the Revenue Officer in G.O. No. L. 802-3/M1. 12-36-112 dated 20-7-1937 when Mr. K.A. Basith, an Amildar in the Revenue Department was for the first time posted as the Revenue Officer of the Municipality. I am therefore led to believe that only the Amildars who have been posted as Revenue Officers of this Municipality can draw the duty allowance and not the employees of the Municipality appointed as Revenue Officers. As Mr. Siddalingappa is a municipal employee, I doubt whether it would be in order to allow him to draw the duty allo ance of Rs. 25/- per mensem. I solicit the favour of early instructions as to whether Mr. Siddalingappa may be permitted to draw any duty allowance.

Yours sincerely,

C. Narayanaswami Naidu, Esq., B.A., B.L.,
Secretary to Government, Law Department,
Bangalore.
